

Saxon Five Wins Hoop Opener On Home Court

Racing On At Alamitos

The quick quarter horses are off and running at Los Alamitos, with the friendly Orange County course apparently on its way to its most successful fall season.

The 23-day meeting, which got underway Tuesday, continues through Dec. 15 with races daily except Sunday, and Track President Frank Vessels Sr. predicted today that both parimutuel wagering and attendance would set new records.

With 10 stakes on the program, topped by the $15,000 added Autumn Invitational Championship and the estimated $14,200 Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Racing Association California Breed Stakes, Los Alamitos is blessed with the greatest array of stakes stars for any fall season in its history.

L.A. Recreation Tourney Tomorrow

The 1956 pre-season basketball tourney, sponsored by the Los Angeles Recreation Department, will be held at Wilhall starting tomorrow night.

Tartars In Long Beach Tournament

Next play for Torrance High's varsity five will be at Long Beach City College when the locals try for top honors in the Long Beach Tournament. The Tartars go against Long Beach Wilson in the first round Wednesday evening, 6 o'clock.

Depending on how the local cagers fare against Wilson, they will meet either the winner, or loser, of a match between Compton and Long Beach Poly. on Thursday. Should Torrance enter the championship bracket, they will play at 7:15 p.m.; the losing bracket play gets underway at 11 a.m.

Coach Fanny Markham will be ready to shoot with his entire squad, headed by Rich Ruffell, Jerry Mathews, Ray and Russ Vanderpool, Gene Crenshaw and Jack Taylor.

The Tartars' overall depth will be increased with the expected return to varsity action of Mike Bertollet and Mick Babbitt.

Other top Tartars expected to see action in tourney play are Ron Lovelady, Dale Mead, Bob Knapp, Toby Venable and Paul O'Kain.

The Long Beach competition will be the first early season test of Torrance's strength. In Bay League circles, the Tartars are rated as contenders for top loop honors.

Public Notice

therein provided, to protect the proposed Change of Zone before the public hearings on the application for the same, the City Council of the City of Torrance, California, has been and is required by Appendix 1 of "The Code of the City of Torrance, 1954", amended, and the status of the City of Torrance, California, as follows:

SECTION 2.
That said Change of Zone reclassifying and changing the use of said property heretofore described and more particularly indicated on the map of the City of Torrance, California, known as the Land Use Map, which is an exhibit to and by reference made a part of Appendix 1 of "The Code of the City of Torrance, 1954", as amended, and which is required by Appendix 1 of "The Code of the City of Torrance, 1954", as amended, and the portion of said Map as amended and hereto attached, is hereby amended to show the reclassification and zoning of the property herein reclassified.

SECTION 3.
That the property to be reclassified is described as follows:

Prather Sets North High Mark In 59-38 Win Over Leuzinger

A win in their season, and home, opener was carded by North High's Saxon cage team Wednesday night when the local five stormed over Leuzinger by a 59-38 score.

The Saxons were led in the win by the sharp shooting of 5'8" Don Prather, who took high game honors with 28 points. Prather's scoring splurge set a new North High individual mark, the former record of 24 points set by Ron Anderson last year.

Prather sparks performance brought the Saxons from an early 10-point deficit to a close 23-20 halftime lead. From there, the locals' superior conditioning proved to be a decisive factor as they ran away with the game.

Ron Petrilli bucketed 15 points to take second high honors in what the Saxons' cage coach, Bill Wood, termed a "real team win."

All See Action
Bill Nissen, Chuck Richardson, Bud Ritter, Ken Gipson, Dave Campbell, Ben Simpson and Ron Tremaine all saw action and aided in the winning Saxon cause.

In the opening game the North High JV's got off to a slow start and were never able to catch up as they dropped a close one, 34-29, to the visitors' junior varsity. Terry Whitmore's 12 points was the individual high score for the local losers.

Coach Wood's crew moves up to Paramount for their next outing Wednesday evening.

Tartarababes Beat Serra

The Tartarababes of Torrance High had a successful start for the 1956 basketball season as the Bees and Ceas both proved to be rude hosts with 46-14 and 30-21 wins over visiting Serra fives Tuesday afternoon.

Jerry Sherburne, Jim Fluher and John Sandstrom led their Bees mates in the win, Sherburne taking high point honors with nine digits while Fluher and Sandstrom split runner-up laurels with eight apiece. Sandstrom, a freshman, was particularly impressive in the win, handling the pivot duties like a veteran.

Top Cee performers were Cliff Roy, with 10 points, and Mike McCusker, with eight tallies.
